A meeting of the equipment committee of the sick soldiers and sailors' home at Knauth House, 322 Albany avenue, was held at the residence of Mrs. Frederick Warren, Pine street, on Monday afternoon, September 12, at 3:30, for the purpose of sorting and distributing the linen that was loaned to the home by the Ladies' Aid Societies of the different churches, donations and gifts from private individuals.

A vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Elsie Knauth for the use of her home, and to all others who contributed to the comfort of the sick soldiers and sailors who have been entertained there.

The flag which had been presented by Forsyth & Davis was given to Wiltwyck Chapter, D. A. R., as custodian, for use in celebrating the semi-centennial of the city next year.

The linen was given to the Tuberculosis Hospital, Kingston City Hospital, Benedictine Hospital and Industrial Home. This linen was loaned with the proviso that it should be given after the home was closed to the hospitals and Industrial Home. The equipment committee's bills are all settled with the exception of replacing some china that was broken, and some plated ware. Balance of funds was voted to be given to the general committee towards defraying expenses. Grace G. Higginson is chairman and Elizabeth D. Davis, secretary and treasurer of the equipment committee.

FOUR FOR N. Y. REP'N MAYOR

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Sept. 13.—Voters of New York city went to the polls today to select, by primary vote, candidates for mayor as well as other city offices, but interest centered in the selection of a candidate to head the Republican ticket.

Mayor John F. Hylan, present Democratic mayor, was unopposed, and his renomination by his party seemed a foregone conclusion. But there was a four-cornered fight for the Republican nomination and it was believed women voters, participating in such an election here for the first time, held the balance of power.

The four candidates for the Republican leadership were: Henry H. Curran, borough president of Manhattan, who had the endorsement of the coalition forces; Reuben L. Haskell, county judge of Kings county; F. H. LaGuardia, aldermanic president, and William M. Bennett, ex-state senator.

The victor of today's Republican fight will later contest with Hylan for the mayoralty.

PALTZ MOTORMAN HURT.

Is In Poughkeepsie Hospital—Hurled From Car.

Arthur L. Fitzpatrick, a motorman on the New Paltz-Highland trolley line, was knocked from the car by a trolley pole and severely injured Sunday night. His wife, who was on the car with him at the time, was a witness to the accident, which occurred at Pratt's Mills, half a mile west of Highland.

Mr. Fitzpatrick was standing on the running board of the trolley, attempting to put down a curtain when he was hurled heavily to the ground and landed on a pile of ties and rocks.

The car was stopped and the injured man hurried to Highland and Dr. J. W. Blakely was called. He administered what aid could be given and sent the injured man at once to the Vassar Brothers Hospital at Poughkeepsie, where he is now confined.

On Sunday evening there was little change in his condition, and it had not yet been ascertained how serious his injuries were. An X-ray was taken Monday to determine whether or not Fitzpatrick suffered a fracture of the skull and if there were other injuries. The home of the injured man is in New Paltz.

JURY TRIAL FOR BAND MEMBERS

The complaint of Erastus E. Brady against the twelve members of the Glisco Band, on account of a difficulty which took place on the Athens road in the evening after the firemen's parade and baseball game at Coxsackie on Labor Day, promises some excitement, as the complaint is to go before a jury for decision. This conclusion was arrived at when the case came up the second time before Justice Hitchcock at Athens and Counselor John C. Welsh, of Catskill, representing the Glisco Band members, asked for a jury trial, which was granted. Mr. Welsh also asked that the name of Michael Pandino, of Glisco, be stricken from the complaint, which also was granted.

The state highway between Coxsackie and Athens was so crowded with auto vehicles following the proceedings at Coxsackie on Labor Day that it looked almost like a dual procession for miles on each side of the road. It was under this condition that the difficulty between Mr. Brady's laundry delivery car and the autobus containing the Glisco Band occurred. Both sides have a number of witnesses and the case comes up on Thursday next, September 15th. The charges by the Messrs. Brady are specific and the band members have entered a plea of not guilty.

SOVIETS ROUSE POLAND'S IRE

Both Sides Claim Treaty Is Being Violated And Poles Threaten To Break Off Relations.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Paris, Sept. 13.—Claiming that the Moscow soviet has not executed the terms of the Russo-Polish treaty, the Polish government is preparing to send a note to Russia threatening to break off diplomatic relations and to close the Russo-Polish frontier, according to a despatch from Warsaw today.

Poland is demanding cessation of Bolshevik propaganda in Poland and also the release of all Polish prisoners from Russian jails.

Poland is also becoming anxious over the increasing traffic between Germany and Russia.

Both Poland and Russia have made counter claims that the Riga treaty is not being respected. The Moscow soviet charged Poland with allowing anti-soviet plotters to carry on their activities with impunity and even gave assistance to them.

IRAK NEWEST THREAT TO TURKS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Constantinople, Sept. 13.—Warfare in the Near East threatens to spread from Anatolia to Mesopotamia or the Kingdom of Irak as the district is known since Great Britain put Emir Feisal upon the Mesopotamian throne.

The Turkish nationalists are greatly alarmed over the prospect that the British will create a winter diversion by sending their Mesopotamian Arabs to war against them. This would prevent the Turks from reorganizing their army which was shattered by the Greeks.

Soviet Russia is watching Turkish developments closely and it is believed that schemes are afoot to bring about the downfall of Mustafa Kemal Pasha and supplant him with Enver Pasha as head of the Turkish Nationalist movement. Enver Pasha has spent much time in Moscow in conference with Bolshevik officials.

THE OPEN ROAD.

Novelist Here in "Auto Cottage" of Her Own Design.

Pearl Doles Bell, novelist and writer for the movies, with her husband, a thoroughbred police dog, "Cop," are visiting Kingston in their unique "automobile cottage." This vehicle-dwelling has been their residence for the summer, moving from place to place, part of the time having been spent in Maine, and now they are on their way south to spend the winter. Mrs. Bell, who is editor of "Fashionable Dress," a well-known magazine for women, planned the house herself, not to escape land lords as might be inferred, but in order to avoid stagnation and secure novelty. The house on wheels is 15 by 7 feet in size and is equipped with electric lights, hot and cold running water and a gasoline stove, a tiny bathroom, kitchen cabinet, ice box and all conveniences the modern housewife could desire. A canoe is carried on the roof and the Bells often enjoy side trips by water. Mrs. Bell's writings for the pictures include three of Shirley Mason's latest successes, and among her published books are "Her Elephant Man," "Gloria Gray," "The Love Pirate" and "His Harvest."

COUNTY COURT NEXT MONDAY

Grand Jury Will Have Many Liquor Cases To Consider—Seized Liquor Held Until Case Is Disposed Of.

County court will convene at the court house next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Judge Joseph M. Fowler presiding. A grand jury and a trial jury both will be in attendance. The September term of county court is the only term of that court which is attended by a grand jury. A grand jury, however, is in attendance at each term of the supreme court during the year.

There has been a large accumulation of cases for grand jury investigation during the spring and summer, and there will be ample work for the grand jury which convenes Monday as well as for the grand jury which will be in attendance at the October term of the supreme court, which convenes on October 10.

Grand jury cases awaiting investigation cover a wide range. There are many cases for alleged violation of the Mullan-Gage law prohibition law.

Inquiry has been made in regard to what becomes of home brew, wine and liquor seized by the city police and State Troopers under the Mullan-Gage law. Such stuff is being held either by the sheriff or by the chief of police. In all cases of seizure, a charge of violation of the Mullan-Gage law has been made against the owner, and such charges will be presented to the grand jury. Until that body has acted on the charge in each case, the evidence must be held and cannot be destroyed. In cases where indictments may be found, the evidence which was seized will be held until final disposition of the case.

ARBuckle CASE WITNESS GONE

Grand Jury Wants More Evidence Before Indicting—Prosecutor Charges Zey Pryon Changed Testimony and That Another Member of Party Has Disappeared.

Mrs. Delmont Is Hysterical.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 13.—Fresh sensations out-rivalling even the shock of the announcement that Roscoe ("Fatty") Arbuckle, the champion heavyweight laugh producer of the movies, had been charged with the murder of Miss Virginia Rappe, featured the developments of the case today.

Of first magnitude was the charge made by District Attorney Matthew Brady that "Undue influence and pressure of a sinister character" had brought to bear on the witnesses of the case. This charge was followed by the announcement that Alice Blake, one of the show girls who attended the party given by Arbuckle at which Miss Rappe was seized with the illness that resulted in death and the bringing of the murder charge against Arbuckle, has disappeared.

In addition, Brady declared that Zey Pryon, another show girl also in attendance at the party, had changed her story and faces possible arrest on a charge of perjury.

It was reported an investigation was under way to determine the source of a ticket to Alabama alleged to have been found in the Pryon girl's possession. The grand jury adjourned at an early hour this morning without action on the indictment against Arbuckle charging murder, which is sought by the district attorney. It was decided to give the prosecutor further time to present additional evidence.

Counsel for Arbuckle were plainly elated with the failure of the grand jury to vote an indictment. They had no statement, however, to add to their earlier plea for the public to hold judgment in abeyance.

"We, with a complete knowledge of all the facts, know that he is innocent," said this statement signed by three of his attorneys.

"We ask the public of our common country to suspend judgment in this case until such time as a jury of the peers of Roscoe Arbuckle shall determine his guilt or innocence."

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 13.—Mrs. Bambi Maude Delmont, who swore to the complaint charging Roscoe "Fatty" Arbuckle with the murder of Miss Virginia Rappe, strikingly beautiful motion picture actress, loomed today as the central figure in the startling drama. Mrs. Delmont was to be the chief witness at the inquest which authorities were unable to complete yesterday.

Early today it was declared that Mrs. Delmont might not be able to testify because of her almost hysterical condition. After enduring the formal complaint against Arbuckle, she suffered a collapse, and it was reported that her nervous condition was unfavorable.

CONFESSES TO KENNEDY MURDER

Los Angeles Newspaperman Swears Arthur C. Burch Told Him On August 14 That He Was Slayer—Did It To Free Mrs. Obenchain.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Chicago, Sept. 13.—Arthur C. Burch, of Evanston, Illinois, has confessed the murder of J. Belton Kennedy at Los Angeles, more than a month ago to Chandler Sprague, a Los Angeles newspaperman, according to a despatch received here today by the Chicago Evening American.

The despatch came in the form of a signed story by Sprague, which was copyrighted by the Los Angeles Examiner. The story asserted Burch had admitted killing Kennedy with the knowledge of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain, who wanted to be freed from the man she could not leave of her own volition.

Burch and Mrs. Obenchain have been under arrest in Los Angeles since a few days after the murder of Kennedy on August 4 last. Kennedy was slain at his summer cabin in Beverly Glen, near Los Angeles. He is supposed to have been shot from ambush as he approached the cabin after a motor ride with Mrs. Obenchain.

According to Sprague's story the confession was made while the two conversed in the Los Angeles county jail August 14, ten days after Kennedy's murder. He killed Kennedy, Sprague alleges Burch told him, because it was the only way to free Mrs. Obenchain from Kennedy's malign influence. Burch, Sprague declared, regarded himself as a knight errant rather than a murderer, and believed the killing justified.

Sprague says that at the time Burch told his story to him he gave the prisoner a pledge not to reveal the secret until Burch had given him permission, unless he should be forced to reveal it under oath. Sprague has been served with a subpoena by the Los Angeles county grand jury.

"He told me," Sprague says in a sworn statement, "that if I ever was forced to print it by a contingency such as has now arisen, he would deny it and would claim the entire story was a fabrication."

BURCH DENIES HE CONFESSED

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Los Angeles, California, Sept. 13.—"It is an internal lie from beginning to end."

Speaking in a clear, firm voice and looking the interviewer squarely in the face as he pressed his cheek close to the bars of his cell in the county jail today, Arthur Burch branded a statement of Chandler Sprague, a reporter of the Los Angeles Examiner, that Burch had confessed to the murder of J. Belton Kennedy as a "tissue of falsehoods."

PRIMARY VOTE LIGHT TODAY

And Probably Due to Fact That Polls Keep Open Until 9 O'Clock This Evening—Much Interest in Crane-Campfield Contest.

Voting today was very light in all of the wards throughout the city, and up to noon but few votes had been cast. In some of the wards not over eleven votes had been registered. The fact that the vote is light may be due to the polls remaining open until 9 o'clock this evening. It is expected that a very heavy vote will be cast between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock.

The contest between Walter F. Crane, the Republican convention choice for mayor, and Mayor Campfield who is running for renomination, having filed the necessary petition, is attracting considerable interest and for that reason it is expected that before the polls close that a heavy Republican vote will be cast. Except in the wards where the Democrats have contests the Democratic vote will be light.

Every enrolled voter should make it a point to attend the polls and vote before 9 o'clock.

FIGHTING BARNES IN PRIMARIES

Albany Independents, With Full City Ticket, Claim Victory Over Regular Republican Organization.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Albany, N. Y., September 13.—Up to early afternoon Albanians evinced but little interest in the primaries here today. Voting was slow.

William Barnes, Republican chief-tain, is faced with surface opposition within his own ranks for the first time since assuming leadership. Independents, who have a full city ticket in the field, headed by Dr. James N. Vander Veer, mayoralty candidate, claimed victory early this afternoon. Equal confidence of success was heard from the regular Republican ticket, which has William van Rensselaer Erving at its head for mayor.

Early indications pointed to a close contest. The polls do not close until 9 o'clock tonight and it is doubtful if results will be ascertained before midnight.

PEKIN CONSIDERS JAP PROPOSALS

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Shanghai, Sept. 13.—The Pekin government is conferring upon Japan's conditions for the return of Kiaochow (Shantung Peninsula) to China and it is expected an early reply will be made to Tokio, said Pekin advices today. Chinese officials refused to say whether they thought the negotiations would reach a satisfactory settlement before the Far East conference convenes in Washington.

Japan in her note to China proposes to restore Kiaochow, but insists Tsing-Tao be made an "open" port. Japan demanded also that the Shantung railway be placed under control of a joint Sino-Japanese board. Chinese bankers would handle the funds and the railway property would be protected by Chinese guards. Japan also seeks a share of the mining interests, but concedes all of the Tsing-Tao customs to China.

U. S. TO HOLD STRONG POSITION

Huge Indebtedness of Some Nations and Fear of Tariff Wall by Others Gives This Country Weapons to Use if Needed at Far East Conference.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Washington, Sept. 13.—When the great powers of the world gather round the conference table here next November to discuss reduction of armament and measures to eliminate discord in the Far East, two all-powerful weapons will be in the hands of the American "Big Four" to lead driving force to American arguments.

One of these is the $11,000,000,000 debt which the participating nations owe the United States. The other is the contemplated American tariff wall, which, if necessary can be erected so high that it will keep away from American shores the products of nearly every country in the world.

Every nation participating in the conference with the sole exception of Japan, is hugely indebted to the United States for money obtained during the war. Thus, if some of the nations object to a limitation or reduction of armament the United States could, with perfect decorum, suggest that if the objectors have sufficient national resources to keep on arming they certainly have enough resources to take up long overdue obligations.

Great Britain, with the greatest navy in the world, owes the United States approximately $4,000,000,000. France, with the greatest standing army in the world, owes the United States approximately $3,000,000,000. Italy, with an army and navy of respectable proportions, owes the United States approximately $2,000,000,000.

With the exception of Great Britain, who has paid a little, or none of these debts have the interest payments been met and the amounts owed are steadily increasing. Japan alone is not indebted to the United States, but industrial Japan and particularly the silk magnates, contemplate with dread the enactment of a tariff program which would tend to restrict the trade with this country. The United States is Japan's greatest customer.

That the administration does not intend to relinquish either of these powerful persuaders before November 11 became apparent today, when it was learned that the legislative plans for the remainder of the special session of congress do not include that they shall be disposed of.

Present plans of the administration, it was learned, do not contemplate the passage of a tariff law until after the first of the year, by which time the trend of the Washington conference would be definitely known.

Likewise the administration's bill for readjustment of the foreign indebtedness has been indefinitely delayed. The so-called Penrose bill granting practically unlimited authority for the secretary of the treasury to negotiate a settlement of the foreign loans.

It will be delayed until the November conference takes some definite trend.

SUCCESS PROMISED FOR BLOCK PARTY

Unusual interest is being taken in the moonlight block party which will inaugurate the membership drive of the Women's Auxiliary of Kingston Post, No. 150, American Legion on Friday evening at Academy Park, and splendid entertainment is promised for everyone.

On account of the block party, the regular meeting of the auxiliary will be held on Tuesday evening, and a large attendance of members is requested in order that arrangements for the party may be completed at that time.

The block party Friday evening will be one of the most successful held in this city because all ex-service men are interested in the efforts of the women of their families to perpetuate in their organization the high principles of patriotism for which both men and women of Kingston made sacrifices during the war.

No more ideal place could be selected for the moonlight block party than the historic Academy Park. The block on Maiden Lane between Clinton avenue and Broadway will be reserved for dancing, and the park itself will be illuminated, the city sometime ago having purchased the colored electric bulbs for use in civic affairs of this character. The Women's Auxiliary, like other organizations which have had use of the Academy Park, paying all expenses connected with the illumination.

The membership of the Women's Auxiliary includes the wives, sisters and mothers of all ex-service men in this city and vicinity and the membership drive which begins with Friday evening's block party undoubtedly will bring the organization up to a position which will make it one of the strongest auxiliaries in the state.

LUCKY STRIKE CIGARETTE

THE OFFICE CAT

By James

Psalm of the Sheared Man.
The barber is mine enemy,
He will not wait
He seeth me hard—
He leadeth me into his barber shop.
He telleth me of my many needs for his pocketbook's sake,
He prepareth a bath for me, filled with vitrolized water and charged 35c.
Yes, he then runneth his shears 'round my head, which costeth 65c more.
He shampooeth my head with coconut oil, and I fear no evil.
But his price, 75c, surely discomforts me.
He shaveth my face with no ease.
His charge runneth over,
Surely to goodness, if I pay $2.10 for bath, shampoo, haircut and shave all the days of my life, I shall dwell in the house of the poor forever.

Yes, Jimmy, the middle aisle is the most satisfactory bridal path.

Buyers Are Cleaving to Trail of Present Fashions for Winter Wear.

WOOL SHAWLS TO BE WORN

Spanish Wrap to Hold Favor Coming Season Are Embroidered, Graceful and Charming—Radium
Silk for Lingerie.

The styles of today are on their way to make room for the styles of tomorrow. At this season of the year we are in the painful process of transition, but the wise ones will watch the signs of the times to see how some fashions will survive and others be cast into the discard. Just now, says a New York fashion writer, we hear some hardened skeptics saying that women will never depart from adopting extreme fashions to make themselves conspicuous, or some such antique theory as that. But there are others who assert that the short-skirted girl has come to stay, because that way of dressing her looks is more practical and the corsetless figure, with its straightline clothes, is with us for life, for the same reason. Who knows? If we are women, we must needs conform to the changes in fashion, whatever our inclination. And most of us incline to conform. We get that peculiar feminine thrill out of a new frock which no other proceeding on earth can bring with it.

Buying for Winter.
Western buyers are putting in their first stocks for winter. They are cleaving to short skirts and to straight lines. But this is always the way of this period of the season. They follow closely in the trail of present fashions, as any wild flights of fancy might lead them, into untold paths of loss and unappreciation. The duty, and, yes, the desire, of the New York public is to go on beyond, creating new types of fashion which, in their turn, will be followed just as assiduously by others next season.

The success of the spring coat and the adaptability of the one-piece dress have joined hands, the two making their autumn bow as a coat dress. Of course, we have had coat dresses before this, but the predictions are that they will be more brilliant achievements this coming season. News from Paris indicates that we are following the lead right here, for many of the wholesalers have reported that sales in this particular direction are going strong.

A new slogan might be: "It is the belt that makes the gown." For in many instances all else is plain, and the winding around the waist becomes the center of the design of the whole frock. All sorts of fancy ribbons and brocades are brought into play for this form of decoration. Then there are cords galore, and strings of beads and metals to be used for girdles. Any one of them is a thing of beauty all by itself, and its association with the gown brings both into relief with a fascination one cannot fail to appreciate.

Wool Shawls for Winter.
The desire for Spanish shawls is not, it seems, just an isolated flight, for we are to have shawls for the winter, too. They are to be of wool and embroidered, and generally speaking, there are to retain much of the grace and charm possessed by the highly colored ones of this season. Women have found them too becoming to part with them. And they are practical adjuncts to the wardrobe.

To be sure, for they can be thrown across the shoulders effectively, and effectively, if keeping out frigid blasts happens to be a subject of any moment.

The Spanish influence of which the shawl is but one reflection, is now being lent to evening wraps in any Paris. French ladies are taking the Spanish designs and the Oriental designs, and combining them to make some of the best-looking wraps that have been devised for many a long day. Women are accustomed to regard their evening wraps as the most colorful of their adornments, and by this new development of fashion, they will lose not a jot in regard to smart and becoming embellishment.

A HARVEST OF BARGAINS

In the mountains, on the golf course, in fact, when indulging in outdoor sport of any kind, one wonders why ladies do not wear "knickerbockers." They look so free and much more modest than the short, tight skirts, which inbuing in this fashion, but if the models are doing it, then we have reason to take notice that this may be accepted style for autumn.

Radium Silk for Lingerie.
As one of the necessary attributes of lingerie just now is that it shall be non-transparent, the artists who are designing the newer models have taken radium silk into the scheme of their calculations, and with some very attractive results. It is presented in the lighter pastel shades and, when made on the simple, prescribed lines and trimmed with some bits of hand-made lace and ribbons to add to its charm, it appears a real creation. Especially are the long chemises good in this material, as they are often called upon to do duty for petticoats as well. Handkerchief linen is used, too, for the smarter pieces of underwear. It scoffs at silk and holds it itself in a quite superior class.

One of the events of Paris is the Bal de l'Opera, and this season, they say, the costumes and the colors and the designs were lovelier than ever they had been in the past. As for color, the fuchsia shades and royal purple, with royal red, were the favorites, being so brilliantly beautiful that it is believed they may set the color note for the smart ones of the season. There were numbers upon numbers of long, hooped skirts, and the domino costumes were so exquisitely fashioned that they offered all sorts of suggestions for the clipes, especially as to the calash hoods which have already been handled sparingly. Laces were made up in every sort of guise, and an astonishing number of the hats were done in trirem shape.

The new idea is to make many of the sleeves long and straight and wide, set into armholes that almost succeed in reaching the waistline.

KINGSTON, N. Y., SEPT. 13, 1921.

BE A GOOD LOSER.

After the primaries there is but one thing to do, all hands get together and elect the ticket. The primary settles all contentions according to the rules of politics, and the losers should do just as much to help in the campaign as the winners. This is what the loser would expect the other fellows to do, so under the circumstances he should do the same. It really gets down to a question of the Golden Rule. The primaries determine who the majority of the enrolled voters wish to represent them, and there seems to be no good reason why a primary contest should not be forgotten after nominations are made.

A primary contest, if those entering the race play the game fair and square, should be helpful. It creates interest in the campaign which follows and brings the aspirants for positions, high or low, in touch with the people. This in itself is right, for the people should know something about the man who will represent them either in the party organization or in public office. But when a primary is over there should be no dissensions. The primary was conceived to allow the will of the majority to be expressed and there is no other way that it can be voiced.

In one sense a primary contest is not different from any other contest where men or women try to win. While no one enjoys losing as well as winning, a good loser will always commend the victor. Not to do so is unwise and never gains anything for the defeated. Some of the most popular men known have gone into popularity by being good losers, whereas carrying a grudge because of being beaten has put some men out of the running forever. There is no question that the people admire a good loser as much as a good winner.

Aside from his ability, one of the most likable men in this country is William Howard Taft and he won the place he has in the hearts of the people by being a good loser. Other men, perhaps not so prominent, have done the same thing and subsequent to a defeat have accomplished a big victory. When the facts of a primary contest are considered, the loser can well afford to help the winner because some day the winner will be where he can assist him. It has been said that a poor loser never makes a good winner and it seems to be pretty sound logic. But the primaries being over, the next step is to elect the ticket, the Republican ticket.

From now until election the people should give some attention to public affairs as they relate to town, city, county or state. Men elected to office are the men who administer affairs and if the business of a community is properly conducted everybody gets a benefit. If the people pay no attention to what is being done and things are not done right it is the fault of the people themselves. They have the remedy in their own hands. Some dislike to admit this but it is so. Nothing is accomplished without work and if the people sit down and refuse to help they must answer.

There is a lot of talk about girls, what they are doing and what they should not be doing, but girls will be girls just the same. Our mothers were girls and our fathers were boys, but when inventory is taken it shows we have pretty good mothers and pretty good fathers. Times change and so do people, and there is nothing radically wrong now any more than there ever was. Somehow we get it into our minds now and then that everything is all wrong. Perhaps we are so far wrong ourselves that it distorts our vision and gives us a bad viewpoint.

"Onward and upward, looking toward the sunrise of a better day," is a good thought to keep in mind just now. There is no question about things looking up, and the more optimism that is distributed the quicker everything will be turning. There is this to it: "Onward," "This, too, will pass," whatever it is, and we will all be in the running again if we don't quit now.

If the employer could only see the light to which the employee is actually entitled, and the employee could only see what the employer deserves they could get together on this basis and the trouble would all be over. But they are both human.

What do you know about Nature Subjects? Send any questions of general interest to the Nature Notes Department of this paper. Look for answers in this column.

Can You Answer These Questions?

1. How can we exterminate Bermuda grass from a 50-foot square base-ball diamond, at a cost under $10; and by means not deadly to stock?

2. What is the best food for baby owls?

3. Where do porcupines live?

Answers In Tomorrow's Nature Notes.

Answers To Previous Questions.

1. Do snakes have eyelids?

No. Most reptiles have eyelids that can be closed, and also a nictitating membrane, as birds do. But snakes and a few lizards have eyes more resembling those of fishes, with a transparent layer of skin over the eye, in place of eyelids.

2. Why do some animals have bushy tails and others skinny ones?

The style of the tail seems planned to fit the habits of the creature wearing it. Bushy tails are grown only by warm furred animals, which as adults usually sleep alone, and need a blanket about the feet and nose. Some animals use the tail as an extra hand, in which circumstance a smooth tail is convenient.

3. What are the laying locations, kinds of nests, and color and size of eggs of the blackbird, American crow, snipe, Indian hen, and wild mallard duck?

1. In low bushes or reeds, of coarse grasses and woodstake. 2-5, pale blue scratched with dark purple and black, 1.04x.72 inches. 2, about 20 feet up in trees, bulky sticks, lined with grapevine bark and moss, eggs 4-6, bluish-green usually thickly marked with brown, but sometimes light and plain, 1.65x1.19 inches. 3, on marshy ground, of grasses, eggs 3-4, olive clay color or brownish ash, heavily spotted with chocolate, 1.60x1.17. 4, on marshy ground, of grasses, eggs 3-5, pale olive buff, 1.99x1.45. 5, on ground near water, in high grasses, eggs 6-13, light greenish buff to grayish, 2.27x1.61. See Chapman's Handbook of Birds of Eastern North America.

Raleigh's Great Work.

H. G. Wells wasn't the first to write a world history of his own conception. Sir Walter Raleigh anticipated him by several hundred years. Raleigh's "History of the World" was a voluminous and painstaking work, showing evidence of profound scholarship and research. It was composed while he was a prisoner in the Tower of London, and it was one of the marvels of the time that a man, under such circumstances, and so far removed from sources of research, could have been able to undertake and carry through such a task.

MANY REPUBLICAN PRIMARY CONTESTS

Practically Every City in New York State Has Republican Contests in Primary Election.

Primary contests will be held in practically every city in New York state today. The most interesting contests everywhere are in the Republican party.

In New York four candidates are contesting for the Republican nomination for mayor, and there is a lesser number of contestants for every other city and borough office, besides contests for the nomination for aldermen and for district leadership. In the Democratic party no opposition has developed to Mayor Hylan, who will be renominated, but there are numerous assembly, aldermanic and leadership contests.

Next in interest is the contest in Albany, where the Republican candidates for the nomination for mayor are Dr. James N. Vander Voer, for many years one of the most eminent surgeons of New York state, and William Van Rensselaer Erving, at one time commissioner of public safety. There are Republican contests in Albany and every other nomination, including aldermen and county and city committeemen.

In Schenectady there is a stiff contest for every Republican nomination, and a large number of contests in the county for various nominations and for committeemen. In the city of Schenectady there are three ward contests. Schenectady has 15,000 enrolled Republicans.

Throughout the western part of the state and along the southern tier of counties there are numerous other contests for Republican nominations and committeemen. The more important contests are county-wide and in the cities are for nominations for city office. The less important contests are for nominations for assembly, supervisors, aldermen and county committeemen.

ON-A-JOB, OFF-A-JOB, JIM!

Being a Story
Of how Jim got on a job and why he got off it again.

Although Jim had never decorated store windows, he had always appreciated a good appearing front and had often stopped to pick out the characteristic points which had attracted the crowd. His first idea in fixing up the windows of Ira Hall's hardware store was to clear out everything there. He pulled the shade before one window for he was too green at the job to stand observation, and besides, he wanted to stimulate interest by keeping what he was doing dark for the time being.

He planned to spend one day on each window. After the space was cleared on the first window, he placed a baby's bath tub in the center, surrounded it with green layers of canvas, leaves and moss, until the tub, filled with water, looked like a silver lake in a verdant land.

A tiny boat was anchored in mid stream, and a doll was seated in it, with fishing poles and lines. In the background was placed a doll house, partly hidden by green foliage, and in the extreme front corner a tiny placard on which was printed: "The fishing is good. We have a complete supply of poles, hooks, lines, baskets, etc."

The next morning he pulled down the curtain and children began to gather in front of the window. They attracted the grown-ups, and all day long, people went out of their way to see Hall's window, and the demand for fishing tackle began. But Jim had little time to watch the effect of his window. He had the other one to finish before night. And that one called for more work because he had to build two houses.

Then, in the cleared window space, he placed the two side by side, graded a lawn, arranged shrubbery, and stopped a moment to appreciate the effect of the two houses. One was bright with paint and varnish; the other water-beaten, unkept.

"They'll see the difference," Jim thought, as he put in his corner placard. "Now is the time to protect your home from winter storms and make it an object of beauty. We sell paints of every description. Come in and look over our supply."

"There," said Jim to Ira, "my work is over, and if you don't sell all your paint and have to get in a fresh stock before winter, I'm a poor customer."

"You are one good friend. I can never pay you back for all you've done. But Macie and I have decided that we can do something for you. We are so happy now that we are engaged that we decided to get a girl for you. She's coming around to supper. We will have a lark, with music and dancing to follow the supper. After that it's up to you."

"You mean to be kind," guessed Jim, "but you are not. No girls for me until I've lived out my uncle's orders. A new job every two days until the will is probated. Now, how could I do that with a 'wedding' demanding part of my attention. No dance for me tonight."

But even as he spoke, the door opened and Macie entered with the girl intended for him. She was pretty and Jim would have enjoyed the evening with her, but—

Ira, however, understanding his dilemma, settled the question at once. "Look, meet the best friend ever. Jim, this is Lou. We're all going to have a great time tonight, but Jim goes away. He'll be back to our wedding, as he is going to be the best man, even if he doesn't expect to be a real best man for some years to come—perhaps never. But we don't mind that, do we Lou?"

Louise laughed merrily. "All Ira and Macie think of nowadays is match-making. We can have just as much fun as friends, can't we Jim?"

And Jim agreed heartily.

Kellogg's CORN FLAKES

Just as soon as you serve Kellogg's you'll note fussy and faded appetites getting mighty sharp; you'll find big bowls being handed back for "just a few more Kellogg's, mother—they're wonderful!"

And, that'll make you glad, for Kellogg's Corn Flakes are delicious—and they make for health and happy digestions! They're a great speed-start for the day's doings! Every one in the family will tell you that!

Kellogg's—the original Corn Flakes—will be a revelation to your taste if you have been eating imitations! Do more than ask for "corn flakes." Insist upon KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes. It's worth while!

SPRING STREET CHURCH.

To Reverse Order Of Services Each Sunday.

At a meeting of the Spring Street Lutheran Church council Monday night, after serious consideration, it was decided to make the following change in regard to the Sunday services:

Since English was introduced in the year 1911 the number of English-speaking members has increased to such an extent that the board found it advisable and necessary to give them an equal opportunity to attend services. Until now English services were held Sunday evening and the German service in the morning, but from October on English morning services will be held every other Sunday and German morning services every other Sunday. On the Sunday that German service is held in the morning English service will be held in the evening and when English service is held in the morning there will be German service in the evening.

The Freeman's church columns on each Saturday will announce the services.

The congregation expects great results from this important change. The service next Sunday morning will be in English.

FOOTBALL SQUAD OUT AT K. H. S.

Monday afternoon football practice at Kingston High School under the immediate supervision of Coach McIntyre and Acting Captain Muller went off with a bang.
Coach "Mac" started affairs with a few rounds of falling on the ball and snappy forward passes to the prospective ends, among whom are Vogt, Rowland and Anderson. Barman, last year's guard and star punter, has been unable to return to school this term, but Coach "Mac" is drilling Vogt and Davis at kicking the high ones and both candidates display wicked legs.
Coach "Mac" picked a temporary eleven and ran the players through a perspiring series of snappy starts with Gruver and O'Reilly alternating at center, Schryver and Beebler, guards, Case and MacLean, tackles, Rowland and Anderson, ends. The back field was composed of Goldberg, quarterback, Vogt and Davenport, halves, with Davis at fullback.
Blair Muller will not be able to play this autumn, due to a recent critical operation and it is with regret that the school receives these tidings, for every football fan remembers the spectacular plays Muller has made.
The schedule this season is particularly heavy, but if the pep shown thus far by the candidates does not filter away results ought to be even better than last year.
Rumor has it that "Cowboy" Meeker and Clemons Yerry are to return, which is great news, if true.

SCHATZ NEXT TO PLAY COLONIALS

No game has been booked for Wednesday by Manager Brown of the Colonials, and it is not likely that any more mid-week contests will be staged. Manager Brown and Captain Schrick are concentrating all their efforts on capturing the Hudson Valley League championship, and under present conditions it is believed the team can do better work by playing only Saturday and Sunday games.

Unless a change is made in the arrangements as they now stand, the next championship game will be played here next Saturday, with the Schatz Club of Poughkeepsie opposing the Colonials. The same two clubs will clash the following day in the Bridge City.

The defeat of the Colonials Sunday has lightened up the race considerably and with two Poughkeepsie teams lined up against Kingston's entry, the fans should be in for some great baseball. Neither the fans nor the players have lost heart as a result of Sunday's game, every Kingstonian being firm in his belief that Captain Schrick's men will be at the top of the heap when the season closes.

STATE CHARITIES AID.
Agent Tells Committee of Recent Work With Children.

The Ulster County Committee of the State Charities Aid Association held its regular monthly meeting at the office of the agency Friday.

The agent told the committee about some of the children whom she had recently placed in institutions. One of these cases shows the very great effort which is made to start the unfortunate children, who come under the care of the county on the road to a normal life. This lad, now thirteen years old, was taken with his feeble minded mother to a state institution for mental defectives. As the child seemed fairly bright, no relatives able and fit to care for him could be found, he was placed in a free home by the State Charities Aid Association. After ten years of careful watching and trial in good family homes, it was found that he could not get along like a normal boy and no longer developed properly or improved. He was therefore boarded at county expense until several specialists had examined and studied him. It was two months before these specialists were willing to say that the boy might be sent to a school for defective children. If he can "make good" there he will later be sent on parole to some good place where he will work.

Quite as careful, though not for so long a time, has been the care given to a little girl who was boarded by the county for a year and a half.

MURPHY CHALLENGES.
Would Put Peter Manning Against Single G For Big Stake.

Thomas W. Murphy of Poughkeepsie, driver of Peter Manning, 2.00, world's champion trotter, Monday night issued a challenge to race Single G, record 1:59, Ed Allen's famous pacer, for a stake of any amount from $10,000 to $100,000, winner to take all, at the October grand circuit meeting in Lexington, Ky. Single G, who is an 11-year-old side wheeler, won the champion stake free for all at Syracuse Monday in three straight heats, stepping the second heat in 2 minutes flat and equalling the fastest time ever made on the Syracuse track. Several years ago Miss Harris M. also a pacer, made the mile in 2:00.

Tagging All The Bases.
The struggling Pittsburgh Pirates were the only performers on big league time. They had a chance to creep up on the Giants, but failed to do so when they divided a twin bill with the Braves. Babe Adams saved the first game when he relieved Cooper and the Pirates won it in 15 innings. The second went to the Braves, 4 to 3.

The Giants are leading Pittsburgh by eight points and the Yankees are 12 points in the van of the Cleveland Indians, who are slated to start their last eastern invasion in Philadelphia today minus the services and influence of Tris Speaker, who is laid up with an injured knee.

Last Night's Fights.
By Telegrams to The Freeman.
At Cincinnati—Tommy Gibbons, St. Paul light heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over "Wild Bill" Reed of Arizona, in the second round of a scheduled ten round bout.

At Columbus, Ohio—Charlie O'Connell, Cleveland, knocked out Eddie Shannon, Detroit, lightweight, in third round.

Prof. Frederick Denner, of Germany, the first to make X-ray pictures of the stomach and the heart in 1:1.990 of a second and to make motion pictures of their action has arrived in this country. Denner is here on invitation of the American Roentgen Ray Society to lecture at its annual convention at Washington the end of this month. He will tour the country delivering lectures on his researches. The scientist, who is making his first visit to this country, recently was received by the King of Spain.
